

Nashville Union.

S. C. MURKIN, Editor.

To Correspondents.

Our correspondents must allow us to take our own time for reading their communications. We have no time to be read to. It is literally impossible.

Please Notice.

We have no time to transcribe communications. We sometimes receive communications with a scrap of confidential information written on the back of the manuscript. Of course if we use the manuscript we have to re-write it, and this imposes entirely too much labor on us. We have no time for such work.

Notice to Club-Makers.

The Editor will be greatly obliged to persons making up clubs for the Union if they will remit to the publishers and not to himself. Communications and subscriptions are sometimes mixed up with private information in such a manner as to cause needless delay and trouble to all parties.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted at the great State Union Convention held in this city May 12, 1862:

Resolved, That we recognize in the Nashville Union an able exponent of the principles of the Union men of Tennessee, and we earnestly recommend it as well deserving of the patronage of Union men everywhere!

PROSPECTUS

NASHVILLE UNION.

The Nashville Union was commenced a few weeks since, for the purpose of combating the Rabid Southern Confederates, of propagating the principles of political自由, without any abatement, over all the States which have attempted to secede. It holds as friends all who support, and as foes all who oppose the Union of the States. It has no watchword but FREEDOM AND NATIONALITY.

With truth and traitor, has no compromise to make. It contends for the Federal Constitution and the Laws made in pursuance thereof as the Supreme LAW OF THE LAND, anything in the Constitution and Laws of any of the States to the contrary notwithstanding.

It contends for the Union of the States, because without it the preservation of our liberties and institutions, and the organization of society itself are wholly impossible. Therefore, whatever stands in the way of crushing out the rebellion and restoring the Union must perish, no matter by what name it be called.

To the people of Tennessee, ever renowned for their devotion to Liberty and Union, until they were betrayed by the rebel despotism at Richmond by a perfidious Government and a traitor, we appeal for support. Let the names of rebel oil-holders, Vigilance Committees, and Minute Men, who have elsewhere borders with mourning, be exhibited before the world. Let those ambitious and treacherous men who have plotted our ruin for their own aggrandizement be fastened to the pillory of shame, no matter how high their position in society. Let it be shown how the soft-told defenders of "Southern Rights" are now leading marauding bands of free-booters and mass troopers over our State, kidnapping negroes, slaying horses and cattle, breaking into houses, burning railroad bridges and cars, and murdering unarmed citizens in cold blood. Let the truth, so long excluded by the Southern conspirators, now circulate freely through every neighborhood, and our cause will surely triumph. Will not loyal men everywhere aid us in the dissemination of facts and the advocacy of Free Government?
